PROJECTS

Student Management System | HTML, CSS, JavaScript

- Built a web-based application to add, update, view, and delete student records through a browser interface.
- Designed a responsive front-end using HTML and CSS, with JavaScript handling form validation and dynamic record updates on the page.
- Focused on clean UI structure and reusable functions to keep the codebase easy to extend.

Stone Paper Scissors Game | HTML, CSS, JavaScript

- Developed an interactive browser-based game where the player competes against computer-generated random choices.
- Implemented game logic in JavaScript to compare choices, track score, and update the result in real time without reloading the page.
- Styled the interface with CSS for a clean, responsive layout across screen sizes.
